

Chapter 3

Sally Bucciero

Tennessee

Worked in Industry Since 2004

Niche – Resort Properties & First-Time Home Buyers

Up until October 2000, Sally wouldn't have thought she endured any hardships beyond your basic life challenges. But during a three-year period, tragedy piled upon tragedy changed her life completely.

“My husband had a hostile takeover of his company. Six months later we had a house fire. Six months later after that my parent's house blew up and burned to the ground. And that was the beginning of three years and fourteen tragedies. I was like a ball in a pinball machine, getting batted around by life.”

What kept her going? Sally quickly says, “I'll tell you my core belief, my belief in God. Having my back against the wall for three years allowed me to see who He really is in my life.”

A chance meeting with a minister from Alabama led to a powerful conversation. “He's standing in my living room saying ‘Sally, God sees so much
